FUTURE AND AYE

“After two difficult years, the year 2023 has arrived offering a conducive environment to do something phenomenal. Treasure this opportunity and let us stretch ourselves this year to deliver the exceptional. A Sanskrit shloka I had learnt in school states that achievements arise from hard work and not just from good intentions.

PARTNER SUPPORT

“For over five years now, Aye Finance has been a trusted partner in our endeavour to bridge the credit gap in the micro enterprise sector via private capital funding. We are once again delighted to collaborate with Aye to support the growth of small, resilient businesses post a difficult couple of years.”
